'What's Next?' Parent Seminar

One of our camp parents from a previous year offered a suggestion:

"It would be great if you did a seminar for parents on 'Your child loves horses, what's next?'

Addressing such questions as:

- What to expect at different lesson levels
- What can my child expect get out of continued participation in riding after camp is over?
- At what level does my child need to be before she/he can participate in a show?
- What are the different kinds/levels of shows?
- What is the financial investment?
- Do I need to buy a horse? (answer to that one is usually- no!)"

We would be pleased to offer such a seminar, on an informal, no charge basis, if parents are interested. If you would like to participate in a seminar like this, please let us know. Please also specify what day/time would work best for you, and we will try to accommodate as many people as possible, i.e.:
